

In my community we recieve no weather and traffic info because we are removed from a major metropolitan area. But I do commute to Salt Lake City and need to get this information before I head out each day. Satelllite Radio is my solution!! To me this move smacks of monopolistic control of vital information that should be readily available to all Americans!!